Szeged THE “CITY OF SUNSHINE”

Szeged is the biggest city of the southern part of the Great Plains, and serves as the seat of Csongrád County since 1962. It is also the administrative, cultural and business centre of the region. It is situated on both banks of the Tisza River. The biggest part of the city is on the right bank of the river, while the residential-type New-Szeged is located on the left bank, between the rivers Tisza and Maros. The microclimate of Szeged is varied and very specific to the region greatly affected by the Tisza. Szeged is known for the high amount of sunshine it receives and the fairly low precipitation. Within the continental climate it shows extremes in climate and temperature. The number of the hours with sunshine totals more than 2100 annually. As Szeged gets the most sunshine among the largest cities of Hungary, it is often called ‘the City of Sunshine’.

The venue, Olympic Centre, Maty-ér

The canoe and rowing course was built between 1979 and 1981. The Olympic Centre is primarily used by the canoe, rowing, triathlon, fishing and leisure time sports. The complete area of the facility extends on almost 76ha. In addition to national and international competitions, the facility offers services for training camps as well. The National Canoe and Rowing Olympic Centre is one of Europe's outstanding water-sport bases, also a significant tourist base in Hungary, thanks to its features and to the lively cultural life offered by the City of Szeged.

The 2400 metre long, 122 metre wide regatta course is located two kilometres south of Szeged. Being an artificial course, hydro-dynamism is not an issue here as it is also quite well sheltered from strong winds. The course has eight lanes along with a separate warm-up lane.

Szeged is 167kms away south of Hungary's capital city, Budapest. Szeged is most accessible on the M5 highway. You can get to the race course on the road to Baja (Highway No. 55) and from the road to Rösztke/Serbia (E75). Szeged can also be reached by Intercity train service.

Address: H-6725 Szeged, Alsóvárosi feketeföldek 158.
